

Sermon Notes for February 4, 2018
2 Kings 13 (part 2): The Chariots and Horsemen of Israel
Pastor Randy Brainard

Why does the king call Elisha “my father”?

What does it mean that Elisha is the Chariots and Horsemen of Israel?

*“Dear Friends, let us seek to live so that even ungodly men may miss us when we are gone!”
(Charles Spurgeon)*

What is the significance of firing an arrow to the east?

Why did Elisha put his hand on the hand of the king?

What did the striking of the arrows show about King Jehoash?

*Never be lacking in _____, but keep your spiritual fervor, serving the Lord.
(Romans 12:11)*

“Let us not fail of this great lesson, God seeks our complete deliverance from sin. He desires that every enemy which troubles us and hinders us from working out the great purposes to which we are called of Jesus Christ shall be consumed and _____... Let us smite, and smite, and smite, and yet again, smite, until every wicked passion, until every evil appetite, until every besetting _____ shall be smitten to the death in our hearts and Jesus shall be crowned Lord over all.” (L.A. Banks)

What happened to confirm Elisha’s promise from God?

Things we can learn from this chapter:

1. You can point people to how awesome God is all the way until you _____ - sometimes even after you die!
2. When God says He is with us, we should strike many arrows (trust God for _____ things).
3. _____ is so faithful to his children.
- 4.