

Sermon Notes for January 27, 2019
Haggai 2:1-9: Don't Quit
Pastor Randy Brainard

Describe what happened in Ezra 3:11-13:

Notes from Haggai 2:1-3:

We go through moods like this ourselves. We begin the Lord's work with joy, but the time comes when we _____ what we are doing with something that seems to us to be or have been greater, and we become _____. (James Montgomery Boice)

Notes from Haggai 2:4-5

Telling someone to be strong and courageous in doing the Lord's work is useless unless there is some _____ for courage.

Haggai tells them to be strong because the Lord Almighty, the Creator, the Lord of the Heavenly Armies is _____ them. So, do not fear and do not be discouraged.

Notes from Haggai 2:6-9

...God assured His people that their efforts, though perhaps _____ in their sight, would eventually be rewarded. God would again dwell among His people and the splendor of His dwelling place would exceed anything Israel had yet experienced. An era even more grand than Solomon's was just around the corner. (R. B. Zuck)

How can we have peace with God? (Romans 4:25-5:1)

What is the measuring stick for service to the Lord?

Therefore, my dear brothers and sisters, stand firm. Let nothing move you. Always give yourselves fully to the work of the Lord, because you know that your labor in the Lord is not in

(1 Corinthians 15:58)

Now to Him who is able to do immeasurably _____ than all we ask or imagine, according to His power that is at work within us, to Him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever! Amen. (Ephesians 3:20-21)