Haggai 2:10-23: Serving With The Right Heart
Pastor Randy Brainard

Why had the returning Israelites experienced such a difficulty with their crops and life?

What does God promise to them now?

So do not worry, saying, "What shall we eat?" or "What shall we drink?" or "What shall we wear?" ... But seek _____ His kingdom and His righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well. (Matthew 6:31, 33)

And He died for all, that those who live should no longer live for _____ but for Him who died for them and was raised again. (2 Corinthians 5:15)

Haggai also encourages Zerubbabel, their leader, specifically. What are the two ways this encouragement came true?

How should we live?

*Is it not to share your food with the _____
and to provide the poor wanderer with shelter—
when you see the naked, to clothe them,
and not to _____ away from your own flesh and blood?
Then your light will break forth like the dawn,
and your healing will quickly appear;
then your righteousness will go before you,
and the glory of the Lord will be your rear guard.
Then you will call, and the Lord will _____;
you will cry for help, and He will say: Here am I. (Isaiah 58:7-9)*
