

Sermon Notes for September 10, 2017
1 Kings 18 Review: How Long Will You Waver?
Pastor Randy Brainard

My people have committed two sins: They have _____ Me, the spring of living water, and have _____ their own cisterns, broken cisterns that cannot hold water.
(Jeremiah 2:13)

1 Kings 18:1-19

Obadiah:

“Ahab’s comment that Elijah had caused the famine (18:17) sums up the lessons of the book of Kings. The people had to learn that it was not the prophets who had troubled the land. Rather, it was their _____ that had brought on the judgment of the Exile.”
(Matthew Henry)

“How small Ahab and his court must have looked to eyes that were full of the undazzling brightness of the true King of Israel, and the ordered ranks of His attendants! How little the greatness! How tawdry the pomp! How impotent the _____, and how toothless the threats!”
(Alexander Maclaren)

1 Kings 18:20-46

“Double-minded people are people who know about God but are not fully determined to worship and serve Him _____. They are those who want both God and the _____. They want the benefits of true religion, but they want their sin too.” (James Montgomery Boice)

How about us?

*Seek the Lord while He may be found; call upon Him while He is near;
let the wicked _____ his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; let him return to the Lord, that He may have compassion on him, and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon.*
(Isaiah 55:6-7)