Discussion Questions: 2 Kings 23:15-37:

1. Unlike his predecessors, Josiah finished by completely leading the people in following the Book of the Law. Jesus proclaimed in Matthew 22:37-40 the Greatest Command. Read verse 25 in this week's passage. How can we learn from King Josiah about how we go about fulfilling the Greatest Command for our lives?
2. How can it be that Josiah's sons did not follow their dad's example? Is this a reflection of the hearts of the people despite Josiah's reforms?
3. Why do you think that God was unrelenting of his judgement of Judah? Do you think the people actually repented of their idolatry as a result of Josiah's reformation? Can coercion or mandate change a man's heart? Why or why not?
