Discussion Questions: Genesis 10

1. What do you think is the point of God providing the genealogy of Noah? Do you think it might be foundational when understanding the Bible? How do you think God's sovereignty is exhibited in preserving the line of Christ? What does this say about God in that He is working toward our salvation?
2. What significance do you think the story of Nimrod has in the history of the human race? Can you see the tyrannical quest for power that is still evident today? Was this the beginning of the Babylonian world system? How so?
