Discussion Questions: Genesis 30:1-22

1. Identify the instances of God's grace as His purposes are accomplished despite the disfunction and rivalry of Jacob's family. Where can you pinpoint growth in their knowledge and faith in God? Do you think God condones their sinfulness? Does God allow them to continue in their sin or does he, through hardship, cause them to be transformed in their thinking?
2. How do you think Jacob's family compares to our culture today? Do you see the same disfunction and sinfulness in our culture? What about your own families? Knowing that God's purposes will be accomplished, and that His grace will abound to you despite of your sin, what should your response be? Read Romans 6:1-4, followed by Philipians 6:1, and Romans 8:30. What kind of Hope do these verses produce in you?
